LOCAL BASEBALL PROGRAMME. Eastern Connecticut and Mill League Have Games Scheduled.

On the local baseball programme for today the coming of the Moosup team to Taftville for a game in the Eastern Connecticut league provides the starroffering, as Moosup is now leading the league, but Taftville is still well up and fighting for a place among the top liners. For this reason, the Taftville nine will be out with extra vim this afternoon to down Moosup and thus advance its own prospects at the expense of the league leaders.

Manager Farrell takes his Hospital team to Lebanon for a return game and is to follow this with a home and home game with Willimantic on the Miller's Independents Going to Fitchville.

Two closely matched teams which should make a hot contest will get together at Fitchville on Sunday after-noon when Manager Bill Miller's Greeneville Independents go to the vil-lage to play the Fitchville nine. Marra and Jack Fields vs. Simcox and Walsh will be the opposing batteries, but in spite of the difference in build of the two twirlers, the Greeneville backers will gamble that the slimly built Simcox will stay just as long and prove equally as puzzling as Marra, the husky heaver, who will bend them over for Fitchville.

JOHN L. PROTECTED

HIS $50 FORFEIT When Meeting All Comers Man With Mallet Knocked Out Tough Ones.

The statement that John L. Sullivan wore eight-ounce gloves when he knocked out all comers in his famous tour of the country when he held the championship of the world has stirred up several old timers. Tradition says that a mejority of Sullivan's victims were so frightened by the glare in John's eyes that they were beaten before they left their corners. All Sullivan had to do then was to walk up to each antagonist, smite him on the chin and let the ambulance surgeon do the rest. It is a matter of ring history that during the memorable tour in which Sullivan offered $50 to any one who stayed four rounds he knocked out fully 500 would-be fighters.

These feats of pugilistic skill earned great renown for the Boston strong boy and incidentally made it hard to understand why John L. assiduously refused to enter the ring with Peter Jackson, Frank P. New York, July 14.—The lowest level of three years was reached today on the stock exchange. Transactions during the morning session feil to 53,000 shares, an amount frequently handled in the first few minutes of an active day. The total for the entire session was 87,300, the smallest day's business since July 3, 1908. Trading on the floor of the exchange at times came to a complete standstill. A number of issues which often are fairly active were not quoted at all and the movement was restricted to fractions, save in a few specialties. The leading railroad and industrial stocks held firm.
